Mission to North America (MNA) serves the churches and presbyteries of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA), providing leadership in church planting initiatives, as well as placement and training services for church planters in the US and Canada. In addition, MNA coordinates Chaplain Ministries, Church Vitality, Mercy Ministries and Disaster Response for the PCA in North America.

After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, and crying out with a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!" Revelation 7:9-10

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age. Matthew 28: 19-20

The Korean Experience in North America

The Presbyterian Church in America (PCA) is committed to reaching all people groups in the US and Canada for Jesus Christ, and Koreans are key among these groups. Since the 1970s, about two million Koreans have immigrated to the US. Because of the strong presence of Presbyterian and other evangelical churches in Korea, a great number of those immigrants are Christians. As a result, over the past three decades, about 4,000 Korean language churches have been planted across the US by these first generation Koreans. There are 190 Korean PCA churches and more than 400 Korean PCA pastors in the US.

Most first generation Koreans living in North America prefer a Korean language church. Second generation Koreans (born in North America), however, are often comfortable with English language churches. And when Korean Americans are called to ministry, they have the capabilities in terms of language and culture to serve more broadly and provide leadership on varied ethnic fronts.

MNA Korean Ministries, led by Henry Koh, seeks to work in cooperation with Korean language and other PCA churches to identify and develop second generation church planters. In addition, first generation Korean churches will be assisted in addressing the changes and adjustments in ministry often required as a result of language and cultural transition.

Vision: The vision of MNA Korean Ministries is to reach many people groups of North America with the Gospel of Christ through the planting of multiethnic PCA churches.

MNA Korean Ministries Coordinator

Henry Koh came to the US in 1954 to study engineering at the University of Iowa. While there, he received Christ and was later called to ministry. Henry earned two masters degrees from Princeton Theological Seminary and was ordained as a pastor in the Presbyterian Church USA in 1970 and joined the PCA in 1980. He is married to Margaret. From 1970–1998, Henry pastored two different churches in Pennsylvania, one of which was a Korean church, before accepting his current position as MNA Korean Ministries Coordinator.

- Strategies:
- Train second generation Korean Americans for leadership in the PCA and encourage them to plant multiethnic churches.
 - Challenge PCA churches to participate in the training and development of second generation Korean American church planters who will serve in a variety of church and community settings, not only Korean or Asian.
 - Encourage PCA churches to employ second generation Korean leaders as interns and assistant pastors and also to give financial support to their church planting efforts.
 - Urge first generation Koreans to grasp the potential for evangelistic mission of second generation Koreans and to support multiethnic church planting.
