4. About the Ministry:

Here is a brief paragraph (120 words) describing the church or ministry to be served (size, demographics, year started, etc.).

Living Hope Church began in 2003 on the University of Chicago campus, and quickly became one family in Christ of diverse cultures and colors, from both the campus and the surrounding neighborhood. Each Sunday, 50-90 people gather in the old pool hall that we renovated, at the crossroads of a world-class campus and a very under-resourced neighborhood marked by low-income, high-crime, and gang wars. But we've witnessed God's renewing love transform both doubting skeptics and street-wise teenagers.

We are renovating apartments to help build the community and fund the ministry. God has provided 1000s of volunteers over the years to partner with us, and we rely on continued help from the Body of Christ for our present work and future vision!
